A CARD.
TO OUR MANY FRIENDS AND PATRONS, GREETING:—We beg leave to inform you that we have removed into our large and elegant new office in the California Bank Building; corner of Second and Fort streets, where we shall keep open doors to greet all our old customers and the many new ones that are constantly gathering around us until they have compelled us to make this change, to secure room enough in which to receive them.
Our new office is 3 by 100 feet in size, all fitted up in first-class style, and we cordially invite you to call early and see us in our new quarters. We think we can offer to you the very choicest bargains to be found in the city, as we shall only handle our own property, and a carefully selected list of other properties for which we have the exclusive agency. We positively will not take property on our books unless it is choice, a bargain and we have the exclusive agency. We have now on hand some rare bargains in tract and installment properties, among which we wish to make especial mention of the "Dayton Heights Tract," which we have just placed upon the market. This tract is upon the direct line of the West End Motor road, which is in operation daily; two stations on the tract; streets graded and water to every lot. There are beautiful views of ocean, mountain and valley, elegant residence sites on mounds, in orange groves, and vineyards, and we can furnish you these large lots, 50x150, from $200 upwards on easy terms. Among our specialties we also mention "Aurora tract," "Spencer tract on Boyle Heights tract," "Lincolnview Heights," "Golden Gate," "Melrose," and Mr. Wick's "Ballona Harbor by the sea."
Mr. Connor, of our firm, will be pleased to accompany any one wishing a home-site by the sea and show them the beautiful sites at Ballona Harbor.
Very Respectfully,
CONNOR & PRESTON.

Contractor Hunt Safely at Home Again,

And Going to Camp on the Trail of His Traducers.

The Coal Pinch Now Promises to Be Speedily Ended.

Another Move in the Azusa Water War—A Deputy Discharged—The Hotels Not Robbing Anybody—Billy Knox Finds a Willin' Maid, Etc.

O. F. Hunt, the well-known carpenter and contractor, who was robbed of $1500 a few weeks ago and soon afterward left for Livermore, Alameda county, arrived yesterday over the Southern Pacific from the north. He was accompanied by his sister and her two little children. THE TIMES stated several days ago that he had gone after them. He was seen at the office of Detective Lucas by a TIMES reporter soon after his arrival, and made the following statement:

"I never had any intention of leaving Los Angeles for good. I was intending to go to Livermore for my sister and her children some time before I was robbed, and when I left I never thought that any one would think for a moment that I had skipped. All of my interests are here, and I have a good business. Of course I was in debt a little, but I paid off the most of my indebtedness the day I left, and I was in hopes that the $1500 which was lost or stolen might be found before my return. My enemies started the damaging reports about me, and the Tribune took them up, when they knew perfectly well that I was coming back. I will make them all suffer if there is such a thing as law in Los Angeles. I never had any intention of running off with a woman. I don't know how that report was started, but I understand it came from a woman who had nothing else to talk about. I will see my lawyer tomorrow and see what can be done."

Detective Lucas is still hunting for the lost money, and thinks he will capture the person who got away with it.

COAL COMING.

The Scarcity Expected to Be Ended Soon.

The coal squeeze in Los Angeles, which has caused general inconvenience, and has been a pretty serious thing in some quarters, shows signs of loosening. It is expected that the Santa Fé will presently be able to bring in some coal from Gallup after the long blockade.

Walter S. Maxwell, the heaviest dealer in this section, said to a TIMES man last night: "Yes, my new steamer is now at San Diego unloading part of her cargo. She will be up here tomorrow night with 1200 tons of Wellington coal. In fifteen days more she will be back again from British Columbia with 2000 tons. Before January 1st she will have brought 5000 tons in here. I leave tomorrow for San Francisco to charter two ships. They will ply between British Columbia and San Diego, so that I will have the steamer free for San Pedro exclusively. Coal is scarce and freights are high. Yes, coal has advanced $2 per ton. It is now $16. Yes, that price will probably be maintained till spring."

A CORRECTION.

In a local article, relative to the scant coal supply, in yesterday's TIMES, some errors occurred which are here corrected. The managers state that there has been no strike or disturbance in the Black Diamond mine at Gallup, N. M., since February last. It is true, however, that the mine has recently been shut down part of the time, on account, solely, of lack of railroad transportation to haul the product away. It was stated in the same article that W. S. Maxwell is the principal owner of the mine, and that he handles the coal in this city. This was an error. The mine is owned by the Black Diamond Coal Company, of which the officers are L. J. Lockhardt, president; C. E. Fout, secretary and treasurer; E. J. Curson, manager in Los Angeles; and William A. Maxwell, superintendent at the mine. It was the last name that the reporter happened to confound with that of W. S. Maxwell, who is also a coal dealer, but who does not handle this brand. Mr. Curson, the superintendent, stated yesterday, in response to inquiries, that he has assurances from the railway company that sufficient cars will soon be furnished the Black Diamond Company for the shipment of their coal as fast as it is mined. This will enable them to resume work on full time and keep up their regular supply for Los Angeles, which has been seriously diminished of late, to the inconvenience of customers.

NO ROBBERS.

The Hotels All Charging Most Reasonable Rates.

Considerable has been said in certain papers here about alleged extortions practiced by Los Angeles hotels toward the vast crowds of newcomers now arriving in the city. While there is no doubt that many of the lodging-house people are exorbitant in their demands, and that room-rents are injudiciously high, the hotels do not seem to have deserved any condemnation in the matter, as their prices have been and are as reasonable as in any city in the country. Late last night a TIMES reporter went to the principal hotels as in search of accommodations, and found things in a reasonable condition. The results of his applications were as follows:

Nadeau: We can accommodate a few more tonight. Our prices are the same as they have ever been, $1 and $1.50 for rooms. We have 106 rooms in the hotel.

Natick House: We are full tonight, but can accommodate lodgers at our branch house, the New Natick, on Los Angeles street. Our prices are 75 cents, the same as they have been ever since the opening of the hotel.

St. Elmo: Our charges have not been increased by reason of the expected influx of people to the city. Lodgers are charged $1 for rooms, and we can comfortably accommodate a few more tonight.

New United States Hotel: No, we are not turning people away. We have seventeen rooms vacant, and our charge is $1 for a single room, and $1.50 for double rooms.

Pico House: Yes, we can give you a good room. We have eighty rooms in the house, and some are now vacant. Any person who cannot find a room, send him here, and he will be accommodated. The house is run on the American plan, and we charge $1.50 for lodging and breakfast.

St. Charles: We can accommodate a few more tonight at the reasonable price of 75 cents for single rooms.

Grand Central: On a pinch tonight, we could make room for and accommodate a few more. Our prices remain the same as they have always been.

There are no persons compelled to walk the streets here, except of their own volition. Accommodations may, at times, be somewhat cramped, but a bed can always be found at some of the above hotels. Beside, there are any number of furnished-room houses where accommodations are plentiful.

As for meals, they are always cheap in Los Angeles, and no city East has a larger proportion of restaurants where one can get a very fair 25-cent meal.

MORE ORDERS.

The Latest in the Azusa Water Controversy.

The Azusa water war was resumed yesterday. The battle ground was changed from the San Gabriel River to Judge O'Melveny's courtroom. The respective armies had left their Winchesters at home, but came thoroughly loaded with affidavits. They were represented by quite an array of counsel. The courtroom was comfortably filled when the Judge stated that he was ready to hear arguments on the order to show cause why he should not punish some twenty-five defendants for contempt of court in disobeying the injunction order granted by him, restraining the defendants from interfering with the stream of water in the San Gabriel River to the hindrance and annoyance of the Azusa Water Development and Irrigation Company.

G. Wiley Wells set the ball rolling by reading the affidavit of M. Baldridge, president of the above-named company, setting forth the alleged great and continuing injustice done to the corporation he represents, by interfering Recommended that the bill of H. C. Register for the grading of Angelina street be allowed. Adopted.

On protest of M. A. Blanchard against the price of $1.50 per front foot for the grading of Second street, recommended the petition be denied, as the board considers that the price is not excessive, as large cobble gutters are to be put in, and the contract be let to E. C. Burlingame. Adopted.

On petition of the San Gabriel Valley Rapid Transit Company for a franchise, board asks further time. Further time granted.

In regard to the petition of the Southern Pacific Railroad, same recommended as last week's report, with the addition that the company be required to put in automatic gates over said cross streets. Ordinance read and adopted.

THE HITCHING ORDINANCE.

Mayor W. H. Workman, having taken a seat in the Council chamber, at this moment handed a paper to President L. N. Breed, and explained that he had not signed the hitching ordinance, on account of great opposition to the reform. He said that he was in favor of some such movement, but the ordinance as passed was too sweeping. Many people doing business on the streets, such as physicians, etc., who are in a great hurry, must be allowed some latitude, and therefore I return it without my signature. Moved and seconded that the matter be reconsidered and referred to the Police Commissioners. Carried.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Recommended that portion of Beaudry street be graded. Adopted.

Recommended that property owners on Kip and Ingraham streets be allowed to do their own grading. Adopted.

SIXTH DELIGHTFUL

EXCURSION

MONTE VISTA,

Friday, Nov. 18, 1887.

The beautiful valley of Monte Vista is situated twenty miles north of Los Angeles city, between the main range of the Sierra Madres on the north and the Verdugo Mountains on the south. The general elevation of the entire valley is 150 feet above tide-water. The Monte Vista tract comprises about 2300 acres, of which about 1800 acres are tillable land of the highest quality known in California, and adapted to the growth of all citrus fruits and many varieties of deciduous fruits. The townsite is relatively small, and is in the southwestern portion of the tract, in which the principal improvements have been made.

Climate of Monte Vista.—Owing to peculiarities of situation, which cannot well be described within reasonable space, but which are immediately perceptible to those who visit the valley, Monte Vista has a climate peculiarly its own. Nowhere else on the coast can such perfect climatic conditions be found. Free from the fogs which fill the valleys below, practically free from frosts, the atmosphere dry and pleasant in winter and summer, being warmer in January and cooler in August than any valley town in the county. Monte Vista is simply unapproachable in the matter of climate. Travelers from all parts of the world have visited it, and, without any exception, have pronounced it incomparable for its softness and its exhilerating qualities. Never too warm, never too cold, a gentle breeze forever tempering the rays of the sun in summer, and the mother mountains enfolding the beautiful valley in her protecting bosom against the cold of winter. Perpetual sunshine makes glad the homes and hearts of all who abide in Monte Vista. In every case of asthma, catarrh, consumption, or general ill health, the advantages of the Monte Vista Valley are superlative. No comparison can be made by us with other places. We ask others to make the most exacting comparisons, not only for a single advantage, but for every one. It is our broad claim that Monte Vista has more advantages for a health resort than any other place in the world. This is from a climatic point of view. With respect to other advantages, we assert that

For Fruit Growing, Monte Vista has the most perfect combination of all the essential elements for the growing of the finest fruits of any place in the world. These essentials are climate (elevation), soil, water, situation. The particular fruits which will make Monte Vista famous within the next few years are Figs, Olives, Oranges, Lemons, Prunes, Cherries, Plums and all sorts of berries.

Water Supply.—So abundant is the water supply that although several hundred acres are now under cultivation, the water is taken out of the living stream (without resort to reservoirs), the Big Tujunga, and is abundant for every acre in the tract. In addition to this supply, there is the greatest abundance of water all along the south side of the tract; in many places the water breaks out of the surface in living springs.

For Residence, Monte Vista is now only one hour from Los Angeles, thirty minutes by rail and thirty minutes by carriage, a most delightful and surprising drive. Two trains each way daily are met by carriage. A daily mail is received from north and south. An elegant church (Methodist) has been built. Streets have been and are now being graded, and many other improvements have been and are now being made. During the next few months a railroad will be built, connecting with Los Angeles and Pasadena, while there is a very strong probability of two being constructed. Combining all these with the climate, fine mountain water, delightful drives and magnificent scenery, and Monte Vista presents more solid inducements for a home than any other suburban town in the State.

Accomodations.—Monte Vista has two hotels, the Hotel Monte Vista, a first-class house, constructed with a view to the comfort and convenience of guests. It is conducted by the company on the family plan, and we feel confident that we shall not be called egotistic when we say that we give better value for the money than any hotel in California. Rates, $3 to $4 per day; special rates are made by the month. The Park Hotel, also conducted by the company, is a cheaper house, new and clean as a pin, and in every respect a No 1 second-class hotel. Rates, $2 per day, or $35 per month.

To Reach Monte Vista.—From Los Angeles trains leave every day, as follows: Santa Barbara train at 9:15 a m. Fernando train at 4:30 p.m. Only one hour to Monte Vista. From Monte Vis a station to Los Angeles: Fernando train leaves at 7:5) a m. Santa Barbara train leaves at 3:38 p m. Only half an hour on the train. Only half an hour on the carriage.

All lots and acreage will be sold strictly by schedule prices after December 1, 1887. Prices of lots will be furnished on application after November 16, 1887. Excursion FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18th, at 9 o'clock a.m. Fare for round trip, including lunch, $1.50.

LARGE RAISIN-EATERS.

THE UNITED STATES THE GREATEST CONSUMER.

What California is Doing in the Way of Raisin-Growing—The Quality of Its Product Steadily Improving—Advantages.

[Chicago Tribune, Nov. 6.]

The United States is the largest consuming country of raisins in the world, and reliable authorities estimate the consumption at about 2,000,000 boxes, of about twenty pounds each, which, at an average of $2 per box, shows an expenditure of $4,000,000 per annum for one article in the dried-fruit line. The amount referred to represents, say, 1,000,000 boxes Valencia, 750,000 boxes California, 200,000 boxes Malaga and 100,000 boxes Smyrna. The crop of the world for the present season is estimated, in round numbers, at 3,500,000 boxes, about as follows: Valencia, 3,000,000 boxes; Malaga, 600,000; California, 750,000; and Smyrna, 2,000,000. The shipments of Valencia raisins to the United States to date are 500,000 boxes, 300,000 of which are now afloat.

The consumption of raisins in the United States during November and December is greater than for any other four months in the year, which is due to the holiday season which prevails—Thanksgiving coming late in November, followed by Christmas and New-Year's a month or more later on. California raisins, which are now so popular with the consuming public, have made rapid progress during the last four years, from which date their prominence dates. Each year the product has been vastly improved, and it is believed that this course will continue until their quality equals that of the foreign product.

It will be remembered that the packers of Malaga last year adopted the twenty-pound weight box as the standard; being forced into it by the packers of California. It has just been announced that they have this season readopted the old standard of weight of twenty-two pounds to the box on account of the fact that the greater proportion of the pack there is consumed in great Britain and upon the continent and dealers in those countries are strongly opposed to the new system. The importers are now dwelling at some length upon the fact that they are offering larger boxes at very little difference in price, while California agents claim superior quality, and put their three crown loose goods against the two crown imported at a much higher cost. As the retailer generally stands more upon the quantity than quality it is claimed that the Malagas have a strong point over California.

One of the most prominent and probably the largest importers of raisins in Chicago, upon being asked for information, said: "The difference between Malaga and California raisins is simply in the flavor, the former being decidedly better, it standing to reason that a vine which for 300 years has been cultivated for the purpose of producing a raisin of delicate flavor is far superior to one which has had similar care for but six years. The California raisin is improving in flavor every year and I see no reasen why it should not in the course of time be worth intrinsically as much as the Malaga. At present an ordinary quality of Malaga is worth and is selling for about the same price as the finest packs of the California products. The California raisin in appearance is much superior to the foreign raisin, but just as a pear from a New England orchard, which has been cultivated for years to produce excellence, and flavor, is inferior to a California pear in appearance, so is the foreign raisin as compared with a domestic. While the United States is the largest consumer of raisins, there are other countries which consume the better qualities of goods in raisins. In this particular Russia ranks first, England second, and France third, the United States coming in for fourth place. The cause of this is that the consumers of America are not educated up to fine goods. I am not speaking of raisins particularly now, but of all food luxuries, but I am glad to say that in this respect we are improving yearly. As regards the competition of the foreign raisin with the domestic, I hardly think the latter will ever be able to crush out the former. The freight on a box of California raisins from San Francisco to Chicago is about 30 cents; from Spain to Chicago it is 18 cents; so that the duty of 40 cents which is now paid on the foreign product is offset to the extent of 12 cents by difference in freight. From San Francisco to New York the freight is 35 cents, and from Spain to New York it is but 8 cents, so you can see there is a still greater loss of protection afforded by the duty on imported raisins. Valencia raisins are exclusively a cooking raisin, and their port of shipment from Denia, Spain, the Valencia district being in the interior. The Malaga raisin is produced, as its name implies, in the district around Malaga, that point being the shipping port from which the product is sent out to consuming countries.'

A leading California house writes from the Pacific coast: "For a number of years California raisins have been sold East below their true value, but if packers and producers of first-class raisins this year will be firm they will realize their full value for their goods. The time has passed when raisins from California will be sold all the way from 15 to 50 per cent. under a Malaga raisin that is no better if it is as good. We refer, of course, to first-class California raisins, well graded and uniformly packed. Certain brands of California raisins which have already reached New York this year of the new crop have been pronounced there by the largest dealers as superior to the Malaga fruit, and such brands are bringing prices equal to, and in some instances above, the imported goods. The product has increased enormously, from 11,000 boxes in 1875 to 703,000 boxes in 1893, and the crop this year is estimated at 1,000,000 boxes, which will require over 70,000,000 pounds of green Muscat grapes.

There will be a musical and literary entertainment given in St. Paul's Parish Hall, in the rear of the church building, on Olive street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, by the altar and decoration committee of the guild on Tuesday evening, November 15th, at 8 o'clock. The following ladies and gentlemen will take part: Mrs. C. L. Davis, Mrs. J. M. Damarin, Miss Short, Miss Laux, Miss Vail and Mr. J. Bond Francisco. A great feature will be the recitations of Miss Mamie Short, elocutionist. Tickets for sale at Bartlett's music store.

LA PRESA!

The Beautiful Swiss Village on Lake Como

BEING REPRODUCED IN SAN DIEGO.

The most novel thing yet undertaken in the development of this southern country is now being done at LA PRESA, nine miles from San Diego. The plan is to reproduce in that delightful spot the counterpart of the celebrated Swiss village on Lake Como, in Northern Italy. To this end a railroad is being built to the place, and a fine modern hotel is to be erected at once. The situation is most delightful; far enough removed from the sea to escape rough winds, yet near enough to be always cool. With pure water, fine scenery, and the best of soil, LA PRESA is just the place to invest for a quick turn with big profits. LA PRESA is sure to grow rapidly, as it has all the elements to attract a select class of settlers.

Lots are Sold for the Low Price of $100 to $125 Each.

IT is stated that $30,000,000 has been added to the public debt of Canada since July 1, 1885, the total indebtedness being at present about $264,703,607. This would require $50 from each inhabitant, or 13 cents from each acre of land in the Dominion to liquidate it.

THIS has not been a propitious year for the cause of prohibition in State elections. In the States of Texas and Tennessee it met an overwhelming defeat, and it was voted down in Oregon by a decided majority. There was an increase, however, in the Prohibition vote in New York. Republicans attribute their defeat in New York to the growth of the Prohibition and Labor vote in the State.

THE New York Evening Post had the Associated Press abstract of Admiral Porter's report, but before printing it the able editor "edited out" all allusion to Porter's urgent recommendation for governmental subsidies to our merchant marine. This is a specimen of the free-trade way of handling "the news." If the news don't suit the gait of the editorial free-trade theorist, he simply knocks out what he don't like, complacently prints the rest, and calls it "a go."

EXTRAVAGANCE in oratory may sound well at the moment of delivery, but it never has a good lasting effect. Gen. Henry R. Jackson, who at Macon eulogized Jeff Davis, assigning him a place above Lincoln, is now reaping the rewards of his foolish utterance. The better sentiment of the South condemns him and the Democrats of the North repudiate him. At a public meeting in Columbus, O., Judge Thurman referred to Jackson as an "old fool."

IN Santa Barbara, despite her claimed boom, there is no crowd or crush of tourists, but still room for more. The Press says: "If there are any pilgrims in the southern towns who are looking for a place where they can find the best hotels in California, and the most perfect climate in the world, they can buy a railroad ticket for Santa Barbara at the Southern Pacific office in Los Angeles for $3.35." The other Southern California towns that keep climate on tap will dispute Santa Barbara's claim that she has the best brand in the world; but, all the same, the Zenith City, by the surging and salty sea, is a nice place for people to go to.

A TRAVELING correspondent of the New York Morning Journal, it is asserted, made an offer to the advertising committee of Santa Barbara to publish a series of articles lauding the town at the rate of $100 per column, but his offer being declined on the ground that the Barbareños don't take stock in paid puffs, the high-toned and disinterested "gernalist" turned upon the town and attempted to give it a black eye. This appears to be the style in vogue now. These people are simply blackmailers. They should be given the cold shoulder by our people. A town, like a man, must be strong enough and fearless enough to receive a blow now and then without either falling down or getting frightened.

Religious Freedom vs. Tolerance.

To expect any religious system, sect or body to conscientiously favor ultra religious freedom would be to expect something directly opposed to the life, spirit and mission of religious systems and sects. And yet, anything short of ultra religious freedom can only be classed as religious tolerance.

Such being the case, religious freedom can only be sought or secured outside the pale of religion itself. It can only be secured by a political government the basic principles of which are utterly oblivious of religion in any of its isolated forms or definite schools.

Religious freedom has had a slower growth, and is more difficult of attainment than the majority of broad-minded thinkers are willing to admit.

In 1885 the Austrian Government refused to receive the American Minister because, forsooth, his wife was a Jewess; and in the correspondence that ensued the American Secretary of State used the following language:

"Religious liberty is the chief cornerstone of the American system of government, and provisions for its security are imbedded in the written charter, and interwoven in the moral fabric of its laws."

The American Republic is the first government on earth to guarantee absolute religious freedom. And in this, among the governments of ancient times, the nearest approach to American perfection was attained by pagan Rome, and the only governments that approach it at all today are those of Switzerland and China.

While other governments may be tolerant in matters of religious thought, belief and practice, the American Government must be wholly oblivious.

The American Government can in no way interfere with thought, or belief, or the expression thereof; and can only assume to direct or suppress when religious practices violate some statutory law, or when they are openly and flagrantly opposed to public morals or the preservation of the public peace.

The line between a political and a religious sect is sometimes very indistinct. Wallenstein's religious cabal merged into a political party, took up arms and fought the Thirty Years' War, and Cromwell's sect acted in like manner.

The motives and passions of men are today as they were then, and the spirit of sect is unalterable. Therefore, when the guarantee of absolute religious freedom, planted in the American Constitution, established governmental obliviousness of religion in its sectarian phase, the greatest sum of human wisdom was attained. For it removed and buried, so long, at least, as the Constitution remains as it is, the sense or fear of injustice that armed Wallenstein's church militant, and that added the sword to the Bibles and hymn-books of Cromwell's Roundheads.

The growth of American sentiment in favor of religious freedom until its lodgement in the organic law of the land, is interesting and somewhat singular. The Puritans wholly ignored the sentiment, and even looked upon toleration not only as a sin, but as a crime against law.

Penn's establishment would tolerate Christianity only. Among the early colonists, Maryland's Catholics made a long stride, but stopped short with the toleration of theists, and would only allow Christians in office, and Roger Williams refused to citizenize Jews.

In the matter of religious freedom, as in total contradistinction to religious tolerance, it remained for Virginia to strike the highest key. On June 12, 1776, the Convention of Virginia passed the "Bill of Rights," sections 15 and 16, of which set forth:

"No free government, or the blessings of liberty, can be preserved by any people but by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and virtue, and by frequent recurrence to fundamental principles.

"Religion, or the duty which we owe to our Creator, and the manner of discharging it, can be directed only by reason and conviction, not by force or violence; and, therefore, all men are equally entitled to the free exercise of religion according to the dictates of conscience."

December 16, 1785, the Convention of Virginia passed Jefferson's "Act to Establish Religious Freedom," the opening paragraph of the preamble of which closes as follows:

"That to compel a man to furnish contributions of money for the propagations of opinions which he disbelieves, is sinful and tyrannical; that even the forcing him to support this or that teacher of his own religious persuasion is depriving him of liberty; that the opinions of men are not the object of civil government, nor under its jurisdiction."

As originally adopted, September, 1787, the American Constitution contained no guarantee of religious liberty. The nearest approach to the subject was the clause contained in section 3, article 6:

"No religious test shall be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States."

Again Virginia came forward and planted the keystone of the arch of American liberty—the fundamental law guaranteeing religious freedom. The first amendment to the Constitution was proposed and insisted upon by Virginia. It is one of the shortest paragraphs of fundamental law in the world, and contains more lasting significance and practical wisdom than all the laws of all the ages and all the nations. It is as follows:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

THE Governor has appointed J. K. Luttrell to be a member of the State Board of Prison Directors. It was Luttrell who used to travel about the State with the title of "Hon." prefixed to his name and "the Wild Ass of Siskiyou" hitched to the end thereof. This last was disrespectful and irreverent. Mr. Luttrell, like the Marquis Borax, is a great statesman.

SAN DIEGO'S hotels are full to overflowing, according to the claim of her newspapers.

John B. Du Bois.

The funeral of John B. Du Bois will take place from his late residence, No. 433 Buena Vista street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Du Bois was 50 years of age, and a native of Cincinnati, O. His wife has been a teacher also in the public schools of Los Angeles during the past fifteen years.

AMUSEMENTS.

CAUGHT IN A CORNER.—So many nights of comedy, good, bad and indifferent makes one's smiles grow rather set, but Caught in a Corner is good enough to bring them out freely. The plot consists in the complications and excitements of Wall street, a pretty daughter and a fascinating French widow being thrown in gratis. The aforesaid daughter is personated by Maude Adams, with a singularly sweet face and a singularly dowdy dress, while the widow is done to a French twist by Albina de Mer. This romantically named lady is as graceful and piquant as the women of her birth are supposed to be, and it is no hard matter to believe in her powers over the male heart and purse.

Mr. Curtis himself as "Isaac Greenrald," "who breaks the corner," is the same old sixpence, and Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of him. His blue eyes roll and so does his coat-collar; as ever he is the defender of beauty in distress and short sleeves. The company is very even and satisfactory, notably the two young men, Al Felly, the utter dude, and George Trotter, the virtuous hero, nor should, "Bolossy" be forgotten. Mr. Curtis retires in favor of Charles Davis on Thursday.

THE PAVILION.—That the Los Angeles public appreciates the enterprise of McLain & Lehman in opening a season of amusement at popular prices, was evinced by a remarkable surprise party last night at the Hazard Pavilion, corner Fifth and Olive. The huge building, which seats about 4000 people, was crowded, and several hundred people were turned away. It was the opening night of the season there with the Webster and Brady Dramatic Company in After Dark. The company is a good one, and no character is neglected. The Jew gambler, "Decoy Morris," sustained by George P. Webster; "Old Tom," a pathetic character, by William A. Brady, and the impersonation of "Eliza," by Miss Charlotte Tittel, a charming blonde, whose every motion is grace, are especially worthy of mention. The scenic effects are admirable. The company deserve good houses, and it looks as if they were going to have them.

MARGARET MATHER.—The advance sale for this brilliant star's engagement opens Thursday morning, and will undoubtedly be very heavy. It ought to be, for Los Angeles is not in the habit of turning a cold shoulder to such attractions.

A RIOTOUS RAILROADER.

He Makes a Row and Resists Arrest.

Early last evening a railroad man named S. T. Richard and a friend of his were eating in the French-Italian restaurant on First street, just below Main, when two negroes entered and took seats near them. Richard was quite drunk at the time and picked a quarrel with them. The proprietor ordered him to behave, when he pulled his pistol and threatened to shoot the restaurant man. Officer Bosqui appeared on the scene at that moment and placed Richard under arrest. In conducting him to the police station he managed to get away from the officer and started toward Los Angeles street, with Bosqui close on his heels. Bosqui had to shoot in the air three times before he stopped, and he then came to a standstill only because a crowd on Aliso street headed him off. At the police station he gave his name as S. P. Richardson. He was booked for an assault with a deadly weapon. He had $190 in his clothes.

An Artistic Feast.

Among the numerous collections of snide chromos which are periodically brought here to work off on this benighted community, it is refreshing to have an actually first-class exhibition of paintings here. There is such a water-color collection—the Fanning—now in Armory Hall, where it will remain till Friday night. The collection was made in Europe, and includes work by such artists as Turner, Samuel Prout, Copely, Fielding and many others.

Ex-Commissioner O'Beirne to Escape Punishment for His Crimes—Reception to Gen. Salomon—The Smallpox Scare—Gov. Bartlett's Grave—Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—[Special.] The following letter from Dr. D. S. Hanson of Cleveland, O., was received by Mayor Pond today:

To the Mayor of San Francisco—DEAR SIR: I write you in regard to John A. Dimmig, who has been lately arrested in your city for murder. I know nothing about the crime, but was formerly intimately acquainted with him, he being my druggist and compounder of prescriptions from 1879 to 1883. He was straightforward, upright and honorable. I never knew him to do an unmanly act. He had a kind heart and it seems to me he would be the last man to do a criminal act. If this will be of any benefit to him, I would be glad, indeed, to have it used for that purpose.

Cleveland, O., November 5, 1887.

Tartars as Boycotters.

[Odessa Dispatch to the London Daily News.]

I should not for a moment imagine that the Crim Tartars have learned much of the Irish agrarian science of boycotting through the channels of the Russian press, as the Russian vernacular is only orally and very imperfectly understood among them. Yet they have developed during recent years a system of boycottiug the German proprietors in the Crimea, which appears to have been highly successful. The lands formerly apportioned by the crown to some 80,000 Tartars in the Crimean Peninsula have, through the nomadic habits and ignorance of these people, been gradually and easily acquired by the princely and other large proprietors for what may, in these instances, be very appropriately termed old songs. These lands have been subleased, in most cases, to the ubiquitous and enterprising Germans. All these estates are worked by Tartar labor, and, so long as the proprietor was there, or a descendant of one of the old Tartar-chieftan families, things went smoothly. A German agriculturist, with capital, a few years ago, discovered in these broad tracts and cheap bargains a promising field for enterprise, with the prospect never absent from the Russo-German's vision of gradually ousting and supplanting the native. This, however, required time, but the German reckoned on the long-suffering patience of the industrious, sober, ignorant and solid-looking Mongolian laborer! The result has proved the German proprietor to be a long way out of his sanguine reckoning. In many cases he acquired estates covering areas of from 50,000 to 200,000 acres, but the entry of the German into the possession of his estates was the signal for a rapid migration of every Tartar laborer and herdsman. The Tartar proprietors who were his neighbors refused the services of their horses, oxen and camels at any price, no matter how tempting. The storekeepers in the neighboring town and fairs would not supply the German's wants. This Tartar boycotting has now succeeded in driving the greater number of the German proprietors to abandon their estates and holdings at ruinous prices. The Governor of the district has now submitted a project to the Imperial Government for the repurchase of these lands, and their division among the Tartars. It is further proposed that in addition to these crown grants of small holdings of some 25,000 Tartars, the Government shall in all necessitous cases supply each Tartar family with a few necessary agricultural implements and a yoke of oxen. There is little doubt that this project will not be accepted by the Government. Here we have the much-abused Russian autocratic Government conceding the rights of the native Tartars to the soil of which they were formerly dispossessed by foreigners, and making that concession in consequence of a successful system of agrarian boycotting. It were too much to expect that Lord Salisbury's Government would stoop to follow in any wise the example here by a power which his lordship still considers to be beyond the pale of western civilization; and yet he might do so with salutary effects in Ireland.

He was Needed.

[Chicago Tribune.]

"You say you want my daughter," said the proprietor of a New York newspaper to a young man who was sitting nervously on the edge of a chair and wiping his feverish brow with a trembling handkerchief.

"Y-yes, sir."

"Have you spoken to her of this matter?"

"She—she has referred me to you, sir."

"Is your affection for her deep and sincere?"

"Sincere?" gasped the young man. "I pledge you my word I haven't slept a wink nor eaten a mouthful of victuals for six whole weeks for thinking of her."

"George," said the father, after looking at him a moment reflectively. "I think you may come into the family. I need a young man of your capabilities to swear to the circulation of the paper."

FORCED TO ASSIGN.

One of Wall-Street's Big Bears Badly Baited.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] A prominent bear operator, A. S. Hatch, has suspended. He was once president of the Stock Exchange, and was caught short of Reading, and the boom in that stock forces him to the wall.

A. S. Hatch & Co. filed an assignment this afternoon for the benefit of creditors, with preferences amounting to $1,200,000 in favor of Max V. Chittenden.

The failure of A. S. Hatch & Co. was a decided surprise to the street, but created no excitement whatever. Hatch was one of the most prominent figures on the exchange. This is the third time he has been forced to suspend. The firm did an immense business and was understood to have had some large customers. For some time back, however, Hatch has been in operation on the short side of the market, and during the recent rise endeavored to depress the market.

Mr. Hatch makes the following statement: "I have made an assignment to H. H. Chittenden for the benefit of my creditors. There are no outstanding contracts on the Stock Exchange. I can give no statement, not even a rough one of assets and liabilities."

On the streets it was estimated that the firm's liabilities would amount to about $1,000,000.

Rule 44, relating to batsmen, has been changed as follows: If, on third strike, the ball hits the person or clothing of the batsman he shall be declared out; also, after two strikes have been called, if the batsman attempts to make a foul hit he shall be declared out.

Rule 4 has been changed from four strikes and five balls. The rule allowing a base hit on five balls has been abolished, but five balls will still be considered a factor in earned runs. Bases on balls will be credited against the pitcher in the usual manner.

Rule 59, section 4, has been amended, allowing the runner to take a base if the ball hits the umpire. If a ball, struck by a batsman, hits a base-runner, after an attempt has been made to field it, the runner shall not be declared out. Roumania and Greece Quarreling Over a Corpse—The German Crown Prince's Physicians Say That He Must Undergo a Dangerous Operation—Discordant Erin.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

An Immense Sum Still Necessary for Its Completion.

PANAMA, Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] Senor Tanco Armero, agent of the Colombian Government on the Isthmus respecting canal affairs, has completed his report on the canal. He says:

"I have carefully traveled over the whole line, and have formed an opinion respecting the work. I am now in the possession of correct data as to the technical and practical work of the canal. The annual report presented by Count de Lesseps to the shareholders is partial, and those of the directors of the enterprise are exaggerated and worthy of no credit whatever."

He stated that to complete the canal the enormous sum of $508,299,000 will be required. Senor Armero says it is absolutely certain that it will be very difficult to raise the sum, and that it is useless to deny that the financial condition of the company is serious and alarming.

In conclusion, he states that, after careful investigation, he believes that traffic through the canal, should it be completed, would be much better than has been estimated.

THE CROWN PRINCE.

His Physicians Unite in Advising a Dangerous Operation.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] A medical conferrence was held atthe palace yesterday. The household physicians, with Drs. Wagner, Bergman, Gerhardt, Ioboldt and Schmidt were present. Von Stolberg presided. A paper was signed which declared the throat affection of the Crown Prince to be cancerous, and that a partial removal of the larynx is no longer advisable. A complete excision of the larynx is recommenned by the physicians at San Remo, but in the meantime it is objected to by the Crown Prince. The Emperor asked that the Crown Prince return to Berlin at the earliest possible moment, but the Crown Princess objected to her husband traveling in his present condition. Today the Emperor, after an interview with Prince William, held a family council.

The Kleins Journal says: "Drs. Bergmann and Schmidt hold that laryngotomy is inevitable in the Crown Prince's case. They would only resort to tracheotomy to save the Prince's life in case suffocation was threatened. They maintain the opinion that it would have been better to have performed the operation months ago, and assert that the delay has lessened the chances of success, although they do not regard the Prince's recovery as impossible."

Dr. McKenzie left San Remo today for London. The swelling in the Crown Prince's throat continues to diminish.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—It is reported that the Crown Prince on being approached on the subject of the proposed operation on his throat said: "As long as the Kaiser lives I shall not submit to the operation. I prefer to let my old father have some hope, and I will not hasten a catastrophe by undergoing a dangerous operation."

SAN REMO, Nov. 14.—Dr. Mackenzie reports that the cancerous growth in the Crown Prince's throat is not due to excessive smoking, and concurs in the doctrine that the germ of cancer is born with the individual.

The keeper of the Santa Fé depot restaurant and his better half are at sword points. Their home is at No. 13 Georgia street, but he remains at his restaurant most of the time, and his wife thinks she is frightfully abused. She called at the police station Saturday evening and told a long story about how her husband had abused her by not giving her enough to eat, and staying away from home for days and nights at a time. She poured her troubles into Capt. Fletcher's ears, and when she left the office he was seen to put his hand in his pocket and give her $1. She thanked him, and left the place. There were several reporters present, who questioned him closely at the time, but they could get no satisfaction. Since then it has been learned on good authority that her husband has positively refused to live with her, although he says he will support her as long as she stays away from him. He gave her $10 yesterday, and promised to give her so much a month, if she is not too extravagant. The case was put in the hands of a benevolent society, and the poor woman will be looked after.

An Oregon Landlord Charged with Burning His Hotel—No Trouble About Hiring Sailors at San Diego—The New Railway Agreement in Operation.

By Telegraph to The Times.

PORTLAND (Or.), Nov. 14. [By the Associated Press.] William H. Hess, a prisoner in the Yamhill County Jail, has made a sworn statement that R. E. Marple confessed to him on the day before his execution last Friday that he had murdered Corker as charged against him. Hess swore not to reveal the confession until after Marple was executed, and never to mention it otherwise. Hess says that Marple told him that his mother was intimate with Corker and they planned to rob him. On the night of the murder she drugged Corker, but while they were robbing his trunk, he aroused, and in order to screen themselves, he was finished with an axe. Marple also confessed to having been implicated in the murder of Mrs. Hager, near Oregon City, some years since, and to having assisted in killing Emma Merleton nearly two years ago.

All these murders were committed with an axe. The reason given for Marple's defiant attitude on the scaffold, and assertion of innocence, is that he was fully convinced that he would be reprieved. Public opinion is divided in regard to the guilt of Marple, and as to this confession of his fellow prisoner.

SAN DIEGO.

A New Steamer—How Smuggling is Carried On, Etc.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 14.—[Special.] The Pacific Coast Steamship Company has purchased the steamship City of Pueblo of the Alexander line, formerly plying between New York and Havana, and will put her on the route between San Diego and San Francisco. The City of Pueblo is very fast. She was built in 1883 at Philadelphia. Her length is 320 feet, breadth 38½ feet, depth 16½, tonnage 2690. The vessel is now on the way here from the East.

NO TROUBLE ABOUT SAILORS.

W. J. Mackay, local agent of the Seamen's Union at this port, says there has not been any trouble or disagreement with the masters of vessels here. The union wages maintained are $45 a month and sailors and masters are apparently satisfied.

SMUGGLING.

The customs officers have made a seizure of another lot of cigars smuggled from Lower California, and it is expected that on the arrival of the International steamer Whitelaw from the lower coast tomorrow the employé believed to be implicated will be arrested. Despite the vigilance of the officers it is generally understood that large quantities of cigars are imported and sold here without paying duty, and smugglers are very successful in escaping detection.

S.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] Inquiry among ship-masters and members of the Seamen's Union this afternoon failed to discern any trouble between them. The sailors demand $45, which is paid without a complaint. Men are very scarce here, and for that reason also Agent Mackay, of the union, says these wages are asked. Mackay characterizes the action of the San Pedro seamen, in demanding $55, as unwise and unwarranted by any existing circumstances.

INCORPORATED.

Articles of incorporation of the San Diego Savings and Loan Association were filed today. The directors are M. D. Hamilton, J. N. Greene, E. W. Burnham, G. W. Parnell, A. C. Morgan, Thomas L. Magee, R. M. Powers, T. B. Hartzell and F. H. Durkhart. The capital stock is $500,000.

THE FLUME COMPANY SUED.

The Giant Powder Company of San Francisco has filed a suit in the Superior Court against the San Diego Flume Company to foreclose a lien against defendants. The amount is $7231. The indebtedness arises from the old John Drew contract. The latter was the contractor who failed and the Flume Company resumed the work.

A BAD BONIFACE.

He Is Charged with Firing His Hotel for Revenge.

PORTLAND (Or.), Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] The Coroner's jury investigating the death of Harry Connor, who perished in the Kneeland Hotel fire a few nights ago, returned a verdict today, charging Lessee McLean with murder. It is said that the latter accused his wife of the crime, but an alibi was proven; also that he drove her from the hotel on the night of the fire with a revolver, set fire to the hotel, lit a cigar and coolly watched the building burn to ashes. A number of persons were stopping at the hotel, most of whom had very narrow escapes. His motive in destroying the property is supposed to be revenge.

A FABULOUS FIND.

Rock Near Prescott Assaying $75,000 to the Ton—Perhaps.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Nov. 14.—[By the Associated Press.] Excitement caused by the recent discovery of rich gold-bearing rock is still unabated. A number of the best citizens, whose veracity is not questioned, returned from the find today and report that the first statement will not do justice. There is considerable rock in sight that goes $75,000 to the ton. A committee of citizens leave tomorrow to investigate and ascertain the truth of the report of the fabulous find.

A Railway Anomaly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—There is a peculiar feature about the fast train started on the Central and Union Pacific. The train that leaves at 7:30 a.m. is an emigrant train or for third-class passengers, while the one that leaves at 3 p.m. is provided with Pullman sleeping-cars, and is for first-class passengers only. Yet the train that leaves in the morning makes the fastest time. It makes the trip to Ogden in 36½ hours, while it takes the first-class train 40¾ hours. This fact is a matter of some surprise in railroad circles.

Travel and Trouble for Nothing.

PORTLAND (Or.), Nov. 14.—The claims of Prof. W. B. Rising of California and E. D. Fenscer, G. H. Wheaton Sears and John Manton of San Francisco for fees and mileage in coming to Portland to testify in the bogus butter case against William Dunbar, a commission merchant of this city, amounting to nearly $900, were today disallowed by Judge Catlin of the County Court, on the ground that claimants were not properly subpoenaed to attend the trial and the accounts were in all respects informal.

San Jose Wants the Home.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 14.—The Board of Trade this evening resolved by unanimous vote that it was the sense of the board that Alum Rock reservation, containing 400 acres, be donated by the city to the United States Government for the purpose of a National Soldiers' Home. A committee was appointed to wait on the Council and inform them of the action of the board. The matter had also been discussed by the Mayor and Council, however, and when the committee arrived it was informed that the plan had been favorably considered and referred to the Committee on Streets, Lands and Squares to determine the power of the city to make the gift of land.

Sent to Samoa.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—The United States steamship Adams, which has been at Honolulu several months, has been dispatched to Samoa.

The Weather.

LOS ANGELES SIGNAL OFFICE, Nov. 14.—At 4:07 a.m. today the thermometer registered 57; at 12:07 p.m., 84; at 7:07 p.m., 64. Barometer for corresponding periods, 29.97, 29.96, 29.96. Maximum temperature, 84. Minimum temperature, 47. Weather clear.

There will be a musical and literary entertainment given in St. Paul's Parish Hall, in the rear of the church building, on Olive street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, by the altar and decoration committee of the guild, on Tuesday evening, November 15th, at 8 o'clock. The following ladies and gentlemen will take part: Mrs. C. W. Davis, Mrs. J. M. Damarin, Miss Short, Miss Laux, Miss Vail and Mr. J. Bond Francisco. A great feature will be the recitations of Miss Mamie Short, elocutionist. After the entertainment there will be a sale of fancy work and refreshments. Tickets for sale at Bartlett's music store.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.
This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by
DR. WILLIAMS,
With his new system of Medicated Inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.
Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.
Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.
Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.
I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.
The very best references from those already cured.
CONSULTATION FREE.
Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address,

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

The Tariff on Lumber for a Kicking Machine.

GLENDORA, Nov. 12.—Mr. Editor—GENTLE SIR: Suppose the United States should put a protective tariff on lumber sufficient to prohibit British Columbia or any other country from importing lumber into Southern California. [By the way, competition in lumber would be a great boon to the consumer just now.] Then suppose ten or twelve wealthy companies should form a pool, get control of the lumber trade and charge just what they wish for lumber. What I wish to know is, who pays this high tariff, the poor unfortunates who live in houses, or the foreigners who on account of the high tariff do not sell lumber in competition with these pooling devils? Who does this protective tariff benefit? Don't you think a wholesale kicking machine would be a grand discovery?

ALLEN POE.

Injuns.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—[Editor of THE TIMES.] Concerning an inquiry as to Indians riding "dead-head" on the various railroads, while in Nevada I learned that they were permitted so to do by act of Congress under which the Pacific grant was made. In any event, they there ride by the hundreds, on the platforms and freight-trains, without interference. Yours, LEX.

[In answer to an inquiry on this subject in yesterday's TIMES, it was stated that we were not aware that the red-skinned natives were granted any special rights or privileges on the Southern Pacific. According to the terms of the Central Pacific Railroad bill, passed by Congress in 1862, the Piutes and Diggers of Lunar California were guaranteed certain privileges upon freight-trains. But while that congressional enactment might do well enough for the Lunar country, it does not apply in any manner to the polished and highly civilized south.—ED. TIMES.]

About Fraudulent Land Schemes.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] The comments on fictitious and bogus townsites in this morning's TIMES are opportune and commendable. Will you permit me to say that several years ago in New York, and, in fact, all through the East, people were "Florida stricken." There came to New York several firms of Florida land speculators who opened offices and advertised largely various "townsites" at suspiciously low prices. People are credulous, and many, mostly the poor, bought large quantities of lots. At last the newspapers commenced an investigation and sent down to Florida a number of correspondents, who failed to find the Utopian townsites at all, or, if found, transpired to be wretched frauds. Consequently Florida, through the greed of a few speculative cormorants, suffered immensely. Now, sir, the point is that, unless this thing be stopped, these fraudulent acts will cause a reaction which will be extended and disastrous in its effects. Yours, etc. LEX.

Dogs' Funerals.

[Undertaker in New York Sur.]

"The highest-priced casket I ever supplied for a dog cost $160. A New York lady was the mourner. It was of solid rosewood, carved, silver plate and everything first class. I don't remember just what kind of a dog it was. Its name was on the plate. There is no ceremony about a dog's funeral. The dog is simply put into a child's casket of fitting size, and conveyed in a hearse-wagon to the cemetery. There the human mourners are in waiting, and some quite striking exhibitions of grief are indulged in over the departed animal, whose bark has been launched, as it were, on the waters of oblivion."

"Do the cemetery authorities object to such interment?"

"Certainly not. At least I have not heard of their objecting, even if they had a legal right to do so. The dogs are interred in the private burial lots of their owners. No monument that I am aware of has been erected to a dog, but the owner fixes some way of telling where the animal is buried. The average price paid for a dog's casket is from $50 to $75, and the plates with the name are usually silver, and sometimes plated.

About 1500 French pilgrims who arrived in Rome October 16th were on the following Sunday formally received by Pope Leo XIII. After offering, through their leader, their congratulations to His Holiness on his approaching jubilee, the Pope addressed them in a speech which dealt with the industrial question, and, while insisting that governments should make the material interests of the working people their care, he urged his listeners to turn a deaf ear to revolutionary incitements.

VALUABLE BOOK!

OUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN

GIVEN AWAY!

To all Subscribers of the

WEEKLY MIRROR!

The price of the WEEKLY MIRROR is $2.00 a year. This book sells for $3.00 in the market. We will furnish both for $2.00. If the book is to be sent out of this office, 20 cents must accompany order to pay postage.

THE MOST PRACTICAL THE MOST RELIABLE

Everybody should have a copy of our "FAMILY PHYSICIAN."

Please read these indorsements of distinguished physicians which were sent to the publishers of this grand work:

Having examined the advance sheets of the work entitled "Our Family Physician," I can say that I find it accurate in its descriptions of diseases and reliable in its therapeutical department.
N. F. COOKE, M.D.,
Professor of theory and practice, Hahnemann Medical College.

I hereby certify that I have examined a work entitled "Our Family Physician," and find it to be correct in its diagnosis, and, in my opinion, worthy of the confidence of the public.
H. S. HANN, M.D.

I have examined the advance sheets of "Our Family Physician." It gives me pleasure to recommend the work as correct in its mode of treatment of diseases, and it deserves wide circulation.
J. F. COOKE, M.D.,
Professor in Bursett's Medical College, Chicago.

After examining the publication "Our Family Physician," I can fully indorse the opinions expressed of its merits by the above gentlemen.
R. A. GUNN, M.D.,
Professor of the Burnett Medical College.

The book contains a valuable chapter of symptoms, which will aid wonderfully in diagnosing diseases, and the proper remedies are given for Allopathic, Homeopathic, Eclectic, Hydropathic and Herbal.

THE BEST PREMIUM OFFERED

By any Paper in the United States.

This book contains 544 pages; is eight and one-half inches long, six inches wide and two inches thick. It is printed on extra heavy paper and is handsomely bound, with embossed cover and gilt-lettered back.

IT IS DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHER WORKS OF THE KIND EVER PUBLISHED.

FIRST—It teaches those who have it how to tell what the matter is when some one gets sick. All similar books tell what to do—if you know what the disease is. THIS BOOK TELLS YOU HOW TO RECOGNIZE THE DISEASE, and then what to do for it. No other book published does this.

SECOND—When a person is really attacked by a dangerous disease, it enables you to know the fact, and in such cases its advice is, "Send for a competent physician at once." In all ordinary cases, such as can be cured without a doctor (and most of the ailments in a family are of this kind, if only you could recognize them), it gives full directions for treatment. The point is, that it teaches you the difference between a dangerous and a trifling disease and tells you when it is necessary and when it is not necessary to call a physician. No other book published does this.

THIRD—It gives separately, and for each disease, the methods used by each of the different "schools of medicine," and in all cases the prescriptions are made by the most eminent men in their respective mode of practice. This makes the work specially suited to the needs of every family, no matter what school of medicine they prefer—the Allopathic, Homeopathic, Hydropathic, Eclectic or Herbal. NO OTHER BOOK PUBLISHED DOES THIS.

WE WILL SHOW YOU HOW IT DOES THIS

If you will call and see us.

Every family should have a guide to health to assist the family doctor, not intended to take the place of the doctor in every instance, but to help you do everything possible in his absence.

—:TO OUR OLD SUBSCRIBERS:—

It is customary with newspapers to give premiums to new subscribers only; but the publishers of the MIRROR mean to reverse this old rule; they intend to do as well, at least, by their old subscribers—those who have stood by the paper in years past, and paid their money for it "right straight along." We propose to show our appreciation of these friends in a substantial manner; and as the premium to be offered is expensive, and as our express object in offering it is to increase our list of subscribers, we will require every old subscriber who may renew his subscription, in order to receive the valuable premium, to bring in AT LEAST ONE NEW SUBSCRIBER, to whom the premium will be given, as well as to the old subscriber.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
LOS ANGELES, Monday, Nov. 14.

Mining stocks are moving up at San Francisco, although the rise is not enough to be called a "boom."

The following is the latest from the foreign wheat market:

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British grain trade during the past week, says:

"There have been larger deliveries of native Wheat and increased sales. Quotations are steady. Seeding progresses, and the acreage already sown promises an increase in area over 1887. Sales of English Wheat during the week were 57,904 quarters at 30s 6d, against 49,771 quarters at 31s during the corresponding period last year. Flour was easy. Foreign Wheat was dull. Foreign Flour was weaker. Corn was steady. The deficiency in the American crop is balanced by ample supplies from the Black Sea and Argentine Republic. Oats were weak. Linseed advanced 6d. Six Wheat cargoes arrived, three were sold. Five were withdrawn, and one remained. At today's market, although both English and foreign wheats were in small supply, there was no demand. Buyers' offers were low, and sellers would not accept the reduction. Flour and Oats were steadier. Corn and Linseed were firm.

DIED.

ANGELL—Mrs. Adelaide Angell, aged 56 years.

Funeral from family residence today at 3 o'clock p.m., corner Aliso avenue and Lottie street, Boyle Heights. Friends of family invited to attend without further notice.

An Opportunity Seldom Offered.

The Santa Fe Railroad Company are largely interested in the new town of Santa Fe Springs, at Fulton Wells. Consequently, all the projected improvements will be rapidly pushed until completed. This is the only resort within seventy miles of Los Angeles where first-class medicinal springs are found. It will, therefore, always be filled with health-seekers. The enterprising firm of Byram & Poindexter have secured 200 acres immediately adjoining the best side of this town of Santa Fe Springs, and will sell no town lots at all. They offer it only in blocks of from four to ten acres, at low acre prices, on easy terms. This gives buyers an opportunity to make handsome villa homes or small farms, just beside a railroad depot, handsome new hotel and other extensive improvements. Any purchaser of his property can double his money by subdividing into lots. Call on us for maps and further particulars. Byram & Poindexter, 37 West First street, Los Angeles.

Elegant Rooms,

And the best board in California, at the Hotel Monte Vista. Finest health resort on the coast; daily mails; one hour from the city; morning and evening trains. Particulars at 39 South Spring street.

A FORGED DECREE.

ATLANTA DELL STANLEY ALLMAN'S "DIVORCE."

The Peculiar Document Which Has Fallen Into the County Clerk's Hands—What Did Atlanta Want to Do with It?

A curious case accidentally came to light in the County Clerk's office yesterday. A large envelope bearing the official frank of the Dead Letter Office came in addressed "William H. Jarvis, County Clerk, Los Angeles, Cal." Of course there is not and never was any County Clerk of that name here; but the missive was for the County Clerk anyhow, no matter what his name might be, so it was opened. Inside was a large white envelope addressed to "Mrs. P. P. Stanley, 1214 East Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, O." It bore the original postmark of San Bernardino, August 23, 1887; had been advertised in Cincinnati postoffice September 3d to 13th, and October 1st was stamped unclaimed and sent to the Dead Letter Office, whose filing stamp it also bears. It was open, of course, as are all missives from that repository of defunct epistles. It contained one of the regular legal blanks for decree of divorce, filled out in apparently proper form. The back of the document reads as follows:

"No. 86. Superior Court, County of Los Angeles. Atlanta Dell Allman, plaintiff, vs. John A. Allman, defendant. Decree of divorce. Filed July 23, 1887. William H. Jarvis, Clerk, by Snell, Deputy Clerk. ——, attorney for plaintiff."

The document itself runs as follows:

"In the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, presenting Hon. G. W. Cheney, Judge. Attie D. Allman, plaintiff, vs. John H. Allman, defendant; decree of divorce. This cause coming on to be heard this 25th day of June, 1887, upon the complaint herein taken, as confessed by the defendant (whose default for not answering has been duly entered), upon the proofs taken herein, and upon the report of ——, referee in this cause, to whom it was referred by order of this court, duly made the —— day of ——, 188—, to take the proofs of the facts set forth in the complaint, and to report the same to the court, and the said referee having taken the testimony by written questions and answers, and reported the same to this court on the 21st day of July, 1887, from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained, and it also appearing to said court that said defendant was duly served with summons, and all and singular, the law and the premises being by the court here understood and fully considered.

"Wherefore, it is here ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this court does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, Attie D. Allman, and the said defendant, John H. Allman, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved, and the said parties are and each of them is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the above-mentioned plaintiff shall resume her maiden name of Atlanta Dell Stanley, and shall be allowed the amount of $200 (two hundred dollars) counsel fees to defray expense of above action.

"Done in open court this 23d day of July, 1887. CHENEY, Judge."

"Office of the County Clerk of the County of Los Angeles. I, William H. Jarvis, County Clerk of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, and ex-officio Clerk of the Superior Court of said Los Angeles county, hereby certify that the foregoing copy has been compared with the original decree granted in the within-entitled action, filed in my office on the 23d day of July, 1887, and that the same is a full, true and correct copy of such original and of the whole thereof, and that the same was entered of record on the 23d day of July, 1887, in Judgment Book AH, page 247. Witness my hand and seal of said court this 23d day of July 23, 1887.

"WILLIAM H. JARVIS, Clerk."

The seal is a plain gold seal, unstamped. The signature of the judge is a pretty fair imitation of Judge Cheney's handwriting, but of course is not his. There is no such judgment-book in the office as "A. H." In fact this whole peculiar document is a forgery; and one naturally inquires for what object. It is evident from the name on the envelope and the maiden name in the alleged decree, that Atlanta Dell Stanley Allman (or some one for her) sent the forged document to her mother in Cincinnati, and that it miscarried—or rather that the old lady had moved and the postoffice people couldn't find her. Atlanta evidently wished to fool the old lady, and might have succeeded if the message hadn't come back in this tell-tale way.

There is a remarkable similarity between the name of this alleged defendant and that of the famous stage-line owner, John Allman.

ANOTHER FESTIVAL.

The Flower Festival Society's Good Work Unfinished.

This society at its last special meeting decided to open its next spring festival of two weeks' duration on the evening of Tuesday, April 17th. Mr. Hazard has promised them the use of the Pavilion on very favorable terms. As the Pavilion has been thoroughly fitted up since the festival of last year, with upper gallery, hard finished walls, fine ceiling, etc., its decoration will be a much easier matter than it was at that time. The board of managers of the society propose several new features in their work this year. One of these is the engaging of a lady decorator to design the general decorations of the interior of the Pavilion and to superintend the execution of her designs. All designs should be sent for examination to the president, Mrs. R. M. Widney, 310 Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal., by January 1st.

Another new feature introduced this year is the offering of premiums. The Committee on Premiums has reconsidered their decision printed some weeks ago, and has made a new list of premiums as follows:

One first prize of $200 and one second prize of $150 for the booth containing the finest display and variety of flowers kept in the best order during the two weeks of the festival. These two premiums are for exhibitors from outside precincts.

One first prize of $100 and one second prize of $75 for the best original design kept in order through the festival by parties either in or out of the city.

Several applications for floor space and also offers to give evening entertainments have already been made. It is very important that all applications for floor space, notice of intention to compete for premiums and offers to give entertainments, should be made before January 1st, by letter to the recording secretary, Miss Fette, addressed to the Young Woman's Home, Fourth street, Los Angeles, Cal.

It is often asked why this society needs any more festivals? As the home built with the funds from the festivals and subscriptions is now self supporting, it might on first thought seem unnecessary for the society to hold another festival or to solicit more help. But a glance into the basement of the home shows that the work of the society is not yet finished, even though the house is wholly paid for, furnished and filled to its utmost capacity with young women boarders.

A debt of $1000 has just been incurred for work in the basement of the building, where it is proposed to open a lunch room in the interest of dependent women. To this room, any party having a ticket from the society and paying the fee of $1, can bring any article of her own cooking, receive the price set by her and approved by the committee, with the discount of 10 per cent., which will go toward the expenses of the lunch room. A cooking class will probably be opened in connection with this.

Besides the expense of fitting up this room, furnaces must be placed in the basement before the cold weather comes, and various other expenses must be incurred.

It was voted at the last meeting of the board that all surplus funds from the festival, after payment of the above-mentioned expenses, should be used either in the care of the aged or in extending the present work for young women.

Tooth and Nail.

A rough-and-tumble fight took place in the "Schooner joint" on Aliso street yesterday afternoon between John Sullivan and William Korth. Both men were badly battered up, and looked as if they had been through a threshing machine. Officer Bowler arrested them.

SEA BRIGHT.

The Owners Declare It to Be a Legitimate Enterprise.

In an article entitled "Squelch the Humbugs," contained in yesterday's TIMES, a clipping from the Santa Ana Blade appeared, in which some reflections were cast upon the townsite of Sea Bright, a place situated not far from Long Beach and part of the old Cerritos rancho. Yesterday Messrs. Blaisdell, King and Turner called at the TIMES office and put in a general denial of the statements made by the Blade. These gentlemen are well known in Los Angeles. They are large owners in the Sea Bright venture and assert that it is a legitimate enterprise and should not be classed with townsite fakes or swindles; in proof whereof they submit the following:

"LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10, 1887.

"Mr. G. W. King, Trustee Cerritos Addition to Long Beach—DEAR SIR: We have organized a company for the purpose of constructing a railway from Los Angeles to Sea Bright, thus to form a connection with the Santa Ana, Long Beach and Coast Railroad. Reserve land for building a union passenger and freight depot at point indicated upon your map of town of Sea Bright.

"E. BOUTON,
"For Los Angeles and Ocean Railroad Company."

"SANTA ANA, Sept. 10, 1887.

"To George W. King, Trustee, Cerritos Addition to Long Beach—DEAR SIR: The Los Angeles and Ocean Railway Company has just been organised to connect with the Santa Ana, Long Beach and Coast Railway, at Sea Bright. Please reserve land for depot and junction as per reservation at town of Sea Bright. C. E. FRENCH,
"President Santa Ana, Long Beach and Coast Railway Company."

The entire property is owned by the following gentlemen: H. B. McDowell, San Francisco; I. S. Tapan, representing Standard Oil Company; R. Turner, F. J. Gilmore, F. E. Young, Fred Chester, E. L. Blanchard, Los Angeles; Robert Gordon, San Francisco; H. C. Weiner, George W. King, C. W. Blaisdell, Los Angeles.

As THE TIMES proposes to make a broad distinction between the false and the true, the bogus and the genuine, in this class of ventures, it promptly and cheerfully publishes the above counter statement refuting the publication of the Santa Ana paper.

MURDERER WILLIAMS.

Getting a Jury for the Uxoricide's Trial.

William Williams, alias "Billy the Buck," was placed on trial yesterday for the murder of his wife, on the evening of the 14th day of August.

The particulars of this shocking and cold-blooded murder are still fresh in the minds of the people.

It appears that Williams was a bricklayer, and addicted to drink. The murdered woman had been living with the defendant for a period of four years, and at the time of the murder they resided at the corner of Alameda and Guadaloupe street. The woman had been a widow named Mrs. Annie Webber previous to her marriage to Williams. She was the mother of three children by the former marriage. Annie Webber, the eldest, 13 years of age, was at that time taking part in the performance of Cinderella, at the opera-house. On Saturday evening Mrs. Williams was present at the opera-house, having gone there to escort her daughter Annie home. They had almost reached their home, when they were met by Williams, who accused the woman of having been untrue to him, which she emphatically denied. Williams drew from his pocket a pistol and shot the woman through the left breast, the shot killing her almost instantly. The defendant was captured the next day, and, waiving preliminary examination, was placed in the County Jail, where he has since lodged till yesterday morning, when he was placed at the bar for trial. District Attorney Dupuy represented the People and Messrs. Payton and McGregor represented the defendant. Williams preserved his usually quiet, unconcerned and contemptuous manner, seeming to be perfectly indifferent as to his fate. The day was spent with somewhat profitable results in obtaining a jury. Eleven jurymen were obtained with lightning-like rapidity, being Nelson Williamson, G. W. Tungate, John R. Fletcher, John Schilling, J. W. Standlee, P. H. Bullis, E. D. Suits, D. Richard, G. W. Durfee, George H. Williams and A. McClintock. The venire was then exhausted and Judge Cheney ordered a new venire to issue for twelve jurors among citizens in the county outside the city. The trial will be resumed at 9:30 this morning, with every likelihood of reaching a verdict by tomorrow.

TING'S TASTES.

He Would Rather Die Than Rejoin His Ship.

As already stated in THE TIMES, Deputy United States Marshal Dunlap returned from San Diego Saturday with Ah Ting, who is accused of violating the restriction act. Ting sailed into the city of Bayneclimate about ten days ago on board the British bark Dorra. He held the position of steward, and shipped at Hong Kong for a long voyage several months ago. He had not served a quarter of his time when the ship reached San Diego, and no one on board had any idea that he was thinking of deserting, but such were his intentions, and soon after the ship anchored he skipped. Capt. Story offered a reward for his arrest, and the Chief of Police soon succeeded in running him down. He telegraphed to Dunlap, and that officer started after Ting last Friday. He was arrested on a United States warrant and brought to this city. Yesterday afternoon he was taken before United States Commissioner Van Dyke and examined. The evidence went to show that he had no right to land in the United States, and the Commissioner today will order him returned to his home in China. The captain is very anxious to have him returned to his ship, but Ting does not wish to go, and the Commissioner has no power to return him. The Chinaman says he would rather die than go back. He has been all over the world, and says he does not know where his home is at the present time. His only desire was to get away from the ship.

STILL MISSING.

Mr. Dougherty and His Four Hundred Dollars.

Mrs. G. B. Dougherty is rather a natty little woman of the blonde type, and when she called at the police station the other day and exhibited several big tears in her eyes every officer in the place offered her his sympathy before he knew what her troubles were. She was taken into the Chief's office and told him that her husband, to whom she had been married but a short time, had left her house and board, and she wanted him to send out all the officers on the force. When she last saw him he had $450 on his person, which he intended to pay down on a house on San Fernando street. He disappeared about the middle of last week, and Mrs. Dougherty says he was to come right down town and make the payment. He did not return that night and none of his friends have seen him since. He was not a drinking man and has never been known to remain away from home except when on business. She is of the opinion that some one knew that he had the money and killed him for the purpose of robbery. The police made a thorough search of the city, but could get no trace of him. His wife called at the police station again last evening and said that she had received no word from him.

FELLOW CITIZENS!

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—This is not intended as a spread-eagle oration or as a sample of our "Queen's English," but rather to remind you that it is growing late in the afternoon of 1887; that only 60 days remain to you for the accumulation of wealth before you must make up your annual balance sheet. Having full confidence in the proposition that all Yankees love the "dollars of their daddies," and feeling absolutely positive that a rich return of these "daddy dollars" awaits all who invest a proportionate sum in the cream of all tracts in the southern part of the city, namely,

—THE—

NADEAU Orange Tract!

We most confidently invite you to do a little business with us. Bear with us while we tell you that the coming new boulevard of the city,

CENTRAL AVENUE,

Will undoubtedly within a short time rival Figueroa street. That it is four miles long, reaching from First street to the Ballona Harbor Railroad. That it is eighty feet wide and has a horse-car line the entire length (in course of construction). That in this beautiful

NADEAU ORANGE TRACT,

—ON THE—

Corner of Jefferson st. and Central ave.,

Your townsman, MR. DODSWORTH, has purchased six beautiful lots, and agrees with us to build at once a house to cost from $10,000 to $15,000. That several others have bought lots there with similar intentions, and we confidently expect to have the handsomest suburban tract in Los Angeles.

Now, time and space grow short, and we can only add: NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY! We are underselling everybody in the neighborhood, giving longer time, easier terms, and generally making it easy for the dear public to get a home, a lot for investment, or, if you please, to sell to the next man at a profit. Call and get price list, maps and general information of yours truly,
